

Kodiak Building Partners to Acquire American Builders Supply

Kodiak Building Partners announced today that it has signed a definitive agreement under which Kodiak will acquire American Builders Supply based in Orlando, Florida. The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2017.

American Builders Supply is a market leader in the growing Florida market serving homebuilders across the state with truss, millwork, windows, doors, lumber and related products. Mark Garboski, ABS Chief Operating Officer, will lead the operation for Kodiak.

Steve Swinney, Kodiak CEO, commented, “This transaction represents our entry into the Southeastern United States, a strong, long-term growth market for building products. We are excited to partner with Mark and his extremely talented management team at ABS to continue to grow the company and our presence in Florida.”

Chad Barton, the founder and Chairman of American Builders Supply said, “We are excited to have Kodiak as the new owner and partner of ABS and have confidence that their deep building products experience will allow ABS to continue to grow and prosper.”

Paul Hylbert, Chairman of Kodiak said, “We have been interested in expanding into the Florida market, and look forward to supporting the team at ABS as they continue the success story that they have written for the past several years. I am confident that ABS will be a key contributor to Kodiak’s future”.

About the Companies:
