Kodiak Building Partners Acquires Sunrise Builders Supply and Expands into the Mississippi and Tennessee Markets

HIGHLANDS RANCH, CO, October 19, 2022 – Kodiak Building Partners today announced the acquisition of Sunrise Builders Supply. Sunrise Builders Supply has one operation in Mississippi and one in Tennessee, and is led by its President, Charles Thomas.

Sunrise Builders Supply was founded in Horn Lake, MS in 1996 to provide high-quality building supplies to builders, contractors, and DIY homeowners in northern Mississippi and southern Tennessee. Since its founding, Sunrise has expanded its reach by adding a second location in 2019 in Arlington, TN, and now supplies lumber, engineered wood, trusses, hardware, tools, paint, and more to both area communities.

With a staff totaling over 100 combined years of experience, Sunrise Builders Supply offers support for any size building project and prioritizes its customer service, quality products, and building long-term relationships with customers, employees, and vendors.

The lumber and building materials sector has been an important growth market for Kodiak, and this acquisition brings its total owned-and-operated footprint to over 100 locations in 25 states, expanding its reach as well as strengthening its operational expertise.

Charles Thomas, President of Sunrise Builders Supply commented, “Being part of a national company like Kodiak will provide increased growth opportunities for our business and employees as well as access to new vendors. For our customers, Sunrise will continue to deliver the same premium products and service excellence they expect from us, supplemented by the resources Kodiak can now provide.”

“We have long admired Charles Thomas’ leadership and the stellar products, team, and culture that he has cultivated at Sunrise,” stated Mike Flood, Executive Vice President of Operations at Kodiak. “We are excited to expand within this market and continue Sunrise Builders Supply’s local legacy. Even as we grow as an organization, it remains vital to maintain our focus on local autonomy and expertise.”

“We have been studying growth opportunities in the southeastern market for some time, and Sunrise Builders Supply stood out as a like-minded partner focused on customer-first service and deep relationships with employees, customers, vendors, and the local community,” said Steve Swinney, CEO of Kodiak. “We look forward to a bright future and to welcoming Sunrise’s team to the Kodiak family.”
